

CORONATION C. M.

OLIVER HOLDEN

FREDERICK W. FABER*

1. God's glo - ry is a won-drous thing, Most strange in all its ways,
2. O blest is he to whom is given The in - stinct that can tell
3. And blest is he who can di - vine Where right doth real - ly lie,
4. For right is right, since God is God; And right the day must win;

And of all things on earth, least like What men a - gree to . . . praise;
 That God is on the field, al-though He seems in - vis - i - ble;
 And dares to side with what seems wrong To mor - tals' blind - fold eye;
 To doubt would be dis - loy - al - ty, To fal - ter would be . . . sin;

And of all things on earth, least like What men a - gree to praise.
 That God is on the field, al-though He seems in - vis - i - ble.
 And dares to side with what seems wrong To mor - tals' blind - fold eye.
 To doubt would be dis - loy - al - ty, To fal - ter would be sin.
