

ST. ANSELM 7.6.7.6.D.

JOSEPH BARNBY

FREDERIC W. ROOT

1. The heavens de - clare the glo - ry Of
 2. His law man's path - way bright - ens, His
 3. In dai - ly con - tem - pla - tion Of Him who made all things; Each day re - peats the judg - ments all are pure, His Word the thought en - Thee, I take de - light; O, let my med - i - sto - ry, Each night its trib - ute brings.

 light - ens, And ev - er shall en - dure.
 ta - tion Lay hold of Thee a - right.

To earth's re - mot - est bor - der His
 To heed His tes - ti - mo - ny, And O, aid me in sup - pres - sion Of might - y power is known; In beau - ty, gran - deur, Wis - dom's way to hold, Is sweet - er far than i - dle thought or word; O, keep me from trans -

or - der, His hand - i - work is shown.
 hon - ey, And bet - ter far than gold.
 gres - sion, Re - deem - er, strength, and Lord.