

347†

BRISTOL C.M.

EDWARD HODGES

UNA R. LIAS

1. Though moun - tains may de - part from thee, And
2. O thou af - flict - ed, tossed with doubt, God
3. Es - tab - lished in His right - eous - ness, He
4. All tongues that rise con - demn - ing thee Are hills be far re - moved, His kind - ness shall re - bids the storm to cease; His chil - dren shall be..

 holds thee free from fear; No wea - pon formed a - si - lenced by His word; This is thy.. pre - cious

main with thee, His cov - e - nant be proved.
 taught of .. Him And great shall be their peace.
 gainst His own Shall pros - per nor come near.
 her - i - tage, Thou serv - ant of the Lord.

