1. When peace, like a river, flows calmly each day, Or sorrows like

2. Though terror may buffet, my joy is innate. This unchanging

3. Lord, has ten the day when my faith shall be sight, The clouds be rolled seas surge and roll, Whatever my lot, Love has taught me to thought is my goal: That God has created my spiritual back as a scroll. When trumpets shall sound and we all see the say, It is well, it is well with my soul. state, And has given me strength in my soul. It is well (It is light, I will sing, it is well with my soul. well) with my soul, (with my soul,) It is well, it is well with my soul.

II Kings 4:26 / Isaiah 34:4; 66:12 / Mark 10:52 / I Corinthians 15:52 / Revelation 6:14. This revival hymn, with a moving text by Horatio G. Spafford, was first published in the 1876 collection Gospel Hymns No. 2, the follow-up volume to Gospel Hymns and Sacred Songs (1875), compiled by Philip P. Bliss and Ira D. Sankey.

WORDS: Horatio G. Spafford, adapt. VILLE DU HAVRE
MUSIC: Philip P. Bliss 11.8.11.9.Ref.

Words adapt. © 2017 The Christian Science Board of Directors